Adjectives from the Ancient World

Today you will be exploring the Art of the Ancient World. As you journey through the galleries together with your chaperone, find a work of art that illustrates each word below.

POWERFUL

Sketch the work of art here

What do you see that makes you say this work of art is powerful?

______________________________
______________________________
______________________________
______________________________
______________________________
______________________________
______________________________
______________________________
______________________________
______________________________

museum of Fine Arts Boston mfa.org
SELF-GUIDED VISIT ACTIVITIES

Adjectives from the Ancient World

STRAONG

Sketch the work of art here

What do you see that makes you say this work of art is strong?

HEROIC

Sketch the work of art here

What do you see that makes you say this work of art is heroic?
BEAUTIFUL

Sketch the work of art here

What do you see that makes you say this work of art is beautiful?

Dramatic

Sketch the work of art here

What do you see that makes you say this work of art is dramatic?
Adjectives from the Ancient World

LOUD

Sketch the work of art here

What do you see that makes you say this work of art is loud?

___________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________

QUIET

Sketch the work of art here

What do you see that makes you say this work of art is quiet?

___________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________
DETAILED

Sketch the work of art here

What do you see that makes you say this work of art is detailed?

What do you see that makes you say this work of art is ________?

Add your own adjective ___________________________

Sketch the work of art here

What do you see that makes you say this work of art is ________?

(Your adjective)